Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Wednesday 22 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Windy tonight. Mainly cloudy on Thursday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Showers, some heavy, for the Northern Isles and far north, these will spread across the western Highlands too. Drier for the north east and southern Scotland. A windy night, gales or severe gales across the far north.

Thursday:
Some brightness for the north and east at first but most places becoming cloudy with patchy light rain and drizzle. Lighter winds for a time.

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Northern and western Scotland mostly cloudy with rain at times. The south and east will be drier and brighter. Warm in any sunshine across the east.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.